

Assistant Coach (open division) – Netball Netherlands National Team

Overview:

We're looking for a dedicated Assistant Coach to support the development of the first ever Dutch national netball team. You'll work closely with the Head Coach to deliver effective, engaging training sessions and play a critical role in athlete support and progression, as well as contributing to talent identification, player development, and overall squad strategy.

The Assistant Coach will be required to travel once per month to different cities across the Netherlands for a full-day weekend training session (typically on a Saturday or Sunday). There will also be additional travel required for matches, tournaments, or other events in support of the Head Coach and team.

Please note: This is currently a volunteer role as we build the foundation of a national Netball team in the Netherlands. The Assistant Coach will report to the Head Coach

Key Responsibilities:

- Support the planning and execution of monthly coaching days in the Netherlands.
- Assist in player development through targeted skills, fitness, and tactical training.
- Provide input on player selection and match preparation.
- Help build a positive, respectful, and committed team environment.
- Offer feedback and mentoring to players, supporting their on and off court growth.
- Liaise with players and staff between monthly sessions to maintain continuity and momentum.

Requirements:

- Minimum Netball Level 1 coaching qualification (Level 2 preferred) or equivalent experience/certification.
- Experience coaching in a club, regional, or national team environment.
- Excellent interpersonal and organisational skills.
- Passionate about growing netball in a new country.
- Available to travel in the Netherlands once per month for in person training camps.
- Willingness to contribute to program development beyond on-court coaching.

- Comfortable working remotely and flexibly between in-person sessions

How to Apply:

Send your CV and motivation letter to netballnetherlands@outlook.com by December 15th, 2025. Please specify which role you are applying for.
