

Team manager (open division) – Netball Netherlands National Team

Overview:

As the Netherlands establishes its first national netball team, we are looking for a proactive and highly organised Team Manager to ensure smooth operations both on and off the court. You will be the key liaison for logistics, communications, and team administration, playing a vital role in the team's success and experience.

The Team Manager will be required to travel once per month to different cities across the Netherlands for a single full-day training session, typically held on Saturday or Sunday. Additional travel may be required for matches, tournaments, or other team events throughout the season.

Please note: This is currently a volunteer role as we build the foundation of a national Netball team in the Netherlands. The team manager will report to the Head Coach.

Key Responsibilities:

- Arrange hall bookings in coordination with local club representatives for the monthly training camps.
- Organise travel and accommodation for competitions requiring team travel.
- Maintain accurate team records, schedules, contact lists, and match documentation.
- Act as the main point of contact between players, coaches, federation officials, and other stakeholders.
- Coordinate venues, equipment, and resources needed for the monthly coaching days in coordinations with the local club representatives
- Manage team expenses in collaboration with the federation and provide budget updates as required.
- Oversee all match day logistics, including uniforms, paperwork etc.

Requirements:

- Strong organisational and time-management skills.
- Great written and verbal communication (English required; Dutch is a bonus).
- Previous experience in a sports management or team operations role preferred.

- Passionate about contributing to the growth of netball in a new country.
- Available to travel in the Netherlands once per month for in person training camps.
- Comfortable working remotely and flexibly between in-person sessions

How to Apply:

Send your CV and motivation letter to netballnetherlands@outlook.com by December 15th, 2025. Please specify which role you are applying for.
